

Amira Elzafran - MOE Subject Lead

Amira Elzafran is an experienced educational leader with a strong background in school leadership, student development, and teacher support across Egypt and the UAE. As MOE Subjects Lead at Arcadia Global School (AGS) and Head of Arabic & Islamic at GEMS Education, she has led large-scale improvements in student outcomes, curriculum development, and teacher training.

Under her leadership:

- Previous school achieved an 'Outstanding' SPEA rating as per UAE Inspection Framework.
- AGS became the largest primary school opening in KHDA history.

Professional Experience

MOE Subjects Lead, Arcadia Global School (2023 – Present)

- Ensures a strong focus on academic excellence, UAE culture, values-based education, and high learning standards.

Head of Arabic & Islamic, GEMS Education, Sharjah (2019 – 2023)

- Led curriculum development, teacher training, and student achievement, contributing to the school's Outstanding SPEA rating.

Arabic Teacher, The International School of Choueifat (SABIS), Cairo (2018 – 2019)

- Taught Middle School Arabic.
- Led Arabic enrichment activities.

Arabic Teacher & Coordinator, GEMS Winchester International School, Fujairah

- Taught Middle to Senior School (Grades 7–10).

Arabic Teacher, Fujairah Private Academy (2015 – 2016)

- Taught Arabic as a Foreign Language (Grades 6–9).

Educational Leadership & Vision

Amira is deeply committed to student and teacher well-being, leadership development, and school improvement. She collaborates closely with staff to foster safe, supportive learning environments with a focus on:

- Character Development
- Culture & Heritage
- MOE Subjects are of the highest standards
- Values-Based Education

Her leadership continues to drive high educational standards and impactful learning experiences.